Overseas Childcare Report 2013

The Overseas Childcare Report provides information on possible care options for pre-school aged children at posts worldwide. The information supplied in this report is used during the bidding season and throughout the year. This information is supplied by representatives from the post listed below, usually the Community Liaison Office Coordinator (CLO) on behalf of the Family Liaison Office and the communities we serve.

Post: Ottawa, Canada

Child Care in Embassy: No child care is available within the Embassy

English Language Daycare Facilities: Please see attached document.

Non-English Language Daycare Facilities: Please see attached document

Other Daycare Options: Andrew Fleck Child Care Services (www.afchildcare.on.ca)

- Type of Provider: Licensed day care centers & home childcare providers
- Live-in or Live-out: live-out
- Comment on the Quality of Care: Government-funded & Ontario licensed childcare
- Cost per month (in US$): varies depending on specific needs and situations.

Other Daycare Options:

- Type of Provider: Nanny
- Live-in or Live-out: Both
- Comment on the Quality of Care: There are about a dozen nanny agency listings in the phone book. These operate much like the US system. Advertised as live-in or live-out, where private homes are regularly inspected and daycare providers are trained and professionally screened.
- Cost per month (in US$): Live-out and live-in nannies ask between $9 and $20 per hour. Some require payment into the Canadian Pension Plan (CPP) and Employment Insurance (EI) which adds approximately 10% to the salary. The wages vary by needs, geography, hours, experience, and education of the nanny.

Au Pairs available: Yes

- Cost per Month: Varies
- Contacts for au pair agencies: Several Listed in yellow pages
